Mewat (Haryana)

Filling up of posts by way of transfer from other Government Departments of Haryana

The Government of Haryana is setting up a new medical college at Nalhar District Mewat. It has been decided by the Government that some of the posts will be filled up by way of taking the staff on transfer from other government departments of Haryana.

An option is hereby given to all the eligible persons working in the offices/departments of the Government of Haryana and the State Universities of Haryana to apply for the posts for absorption on permanent basis in the medical college, Nalhar District Mewat. The terms and conditions of this process of recruitment are as follows :-

1. On transfer to the cadre of Medical College, Nalhar, Mewat, the persons will be regulated by the rules of the college which are at par with the rules currently applicable on the employees of Pt. B.D Sharma PGIMS, Rohtak.
2. The retirement age of non-teaching staff will be 62 years as in the case of similarly placed persons of Pt. B.D.Sharma PGIMS, Rohtak.
3. The pay scales as applicable to similarly placed persons of Pt. B.D.Sharma PGIMS, Rohtak will be granted. In case an employee is getting higher pay in the parent department, the benefit of protection of pay will also be admissible.
4. Residential accommodation is being created in the campus of the college. It cannot be claimed as a matter of right by any employee to get official accommodation in the campus however depending upon exigencies of smooth functioning of the college and the hospital, residential accommodation can be provided to the employees in accordance with the policy on the subject. Allotment of houses however will be done as per needs to be assessed by the House Allotment Committee.

List of the posts to be filled up & other details may be seen at website: www.haryanahealth.nic.in.
